California State University, Stanislaus

Assessment Methods Distribution and Feedback Process

- Office of Institutional Research administers assessment and collects data.
- Office of Institutional Research conducts analysis of data and develops an executive summary.
- Office of Institutional Research posts executive summary online.
- Office of Institutional Research distributes assessment information to various governance committees and individuals for review and response.
- Campus governance committees and individuals review assessment information and develop recommendations and proposed actions.
- Campus governance committees and individuals forward responses to the Office of Institutional Research.
- Office of Institutional Research reviews responses and forwards reports to the Office of Assessment and Quality Assurance for tracking and archival purposes.
- The Office of Assessment and Quality Assurance archives responses and tracks implementation of actions.
- Office of Assessment and Quality Assurance compiles responses and actions into an summary document , forwards to Institutional Research, and posts online.
- Campus governance committees and individuals receive a copy of the summary document the folllowing year to be used for follow-up on action items.