Overview

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) is looking for the best and brightest to join our team. Our mission is to protect investors, maintain fair, orderly, and efficient markets, and facilitate capital formation. A career with the SEC offers work that is exciting, challenging and rewarding. You can contribute to securities regulation and enforcement while making a positive difference for the American investing public.

Duties

Undergraduate students will be assigned to work with SEC staff members on projects and assignments that cover a broad range of the Commissions' work. That work depends upon the division or office where the student works. Intern assignments range from supporting securities regulations to assisting in professional administrative duties such as human resources, contracting, auditing, etc. Students are required to work full-time (40 hours per week) within the Washington, DC or Regional Offices.

For information about the opportunities and the work that interns do in specific divisions and offices, please read the SEC's website.

Qualifications

- All qualification requirements must be met by the closing date of this announcement.
- Undergraduate students must be enrolled at least half-time in an accredited college or university to participate in the Student Honors Business Program.
- Must be a sophomore, junior, or senior student as of June 30, 2017.
- Relatives of current SEC employees are ineligible.
- Must be enrolled as a degree-seeking student.
- Must be taking at least half-time academic course load. A GPA of 3.0 or higher is preferred.
- High school students & newly admitted college freshman are ineligible to participate to the Student Honors Business Program. Additional qualifications information can be found here.
