

California State University, Stanislaus
Office of Academic Programs

TIMELINE FOR NEW DEGREE MAJOR PROGRAM PROPOSALS FOR FALL 2012 IMPLEMENTATION

FOR JANUARY TRANSMITTAL TO THE CHANCELLOR'S OFFICE

Introduction: This timeline is a general guide for new program development. The time required to secure program approvals at various levels is difficult to predict and is dependent upon the scheduling of the meetings of the various governance committees, the length of time for review within each committee, and the clarity and specificity of the program proposal itself.

Title of New Degree Program

2010/11	TARGET DATE	ACTIVITY	√
	Fall 2010
	September 2010	Department discusses proposed program with dean and appropriate college committee and seeks approval for continued planning
		Department consults with other departments that may have interest in the proposed program
	October 2010	Department writes draft proposal and new and/or modified course proposals
		Department provides to Institutional Research a list of possible occupations
		Department provides to Institutional Research a list of prospective employers in the region (or state)
		Department provides to Institutional Research a list of high school students, CSU Stanislaus students, programs at community colleges likely to have students interested in the proposed major, and a list of working professionals (or agencies where working professionals work) – if wish IR to conduct survey
		Department reviews and edits sample surveys
	January 2011	Vice Provost conducts workshop on New Academic Program Development
		Institutional Research administers surveys and collects workforce and job market demand analyses and provides to department
		Department continues to write draft proposal and new and/or modified course proposals
	Spring 2011
	February 2011	Institutional Research provides data analysis from formal surveys and labor statistics to support student demand and employment opportunities.
		Department submits draft proposal to college dean
		Department provides to college dean a list of external reviewers and dean transmits to external reviewers
	March 2011	Department finalizes draft proposal and new and/or modified course proposals and approves program proposal
		External reviewers comments are received and draft proposal revised
	April/May 2011	College curriculum committee and dean approval program

2010/11	TARGET DATE	ACTIVITY	√
	Fall 2011	Campus approval
	September 2011	University Educational Policies Committee – first reading (undergraduate)
		Graduate Council – first reading (graduate program)
		Consultation with other appropriate university committees
	October 2011	University Educational Policies Committee – second reading (undergraduate)
		Graduate Council – second reading (graduate program) (if needed)
		Senate Executive Committee
	November 2011	Academic Senate – first reading
		Academic Senate – second reading
	December 2011	Office of Academic Programs prepares final proposal
	Early January 2012	Vice Provost transmits to Chancellor's Office
	Spring 2012	Chancellor's Office approval
	2 nd week in March 2012	CSU Board of Trustees review proposal
	June 2012	California Postsecondary Education Commission provides review and commentary
	July 2012	Chancellor's Office provides approval
	Variable	WASC provides approval (if required)
	Variable	Disciplinary accreditation approval (if required)*
	September 2012	Program is implemented

*If a professional accrediting agency governs the offering of new programs in the specific discipline, the campus may seek disciplinary accreditation simultaneously with, or after, WASC accreditation as required by the agency.