

Class List The day before instruction begins, instructors receive from the Dean of Admissions a class list for all students who are registered in their classes. Class lists must be checked carefully by faculty members to see that there are no students attending class who are not on the list and properly registered. If there are students who are attending class and are not on the list, they should be referred to the Enrollment Services Office to clarify their registration.