

Plagiarism

Faculty members who require outside written work should see to it that their students understand the nature and significance of plagiarism; they should also assure themselves that their students are familiar with the proper methods of using outside sources of material. See Article 1.1, Title 5, California Administrative Code