

California State University, Stanislaus
Nursing (MSN) Curriculum Map

Program Student Learning Outcomes	Related Graduate School SLO	Methods of Assessment	When Assessed	Criteria for Achievement	Evaluation Process
Contribute to the development and application of nursing knowledge through the use of theory and the scientific process	1. Advance knowledge, skills, and values appropriate to the discipline	Employer & Alumni Survey Culminating Experience	12 months post graduation Final semester	Average rating of 3.5 on a scale of 1-5 Minimum grade of 85% on 100% of papers/projects	To be determined Survey to be developed
Employ critical thinking and clinical reasoning in providing evidence-based nursing care to diverse individuals, families, and communities	2. Ability to be creative, analytical, critical thinkers	Employer & Alumni Survey Culminating Experience	12 months post graduation Final semester	Average rating of 3.5 on a scale of 1-5 Minimum grade of 85% on 100% of papers/projects	To be determined Survey to be developed
Participate in the organization, management, and leadership of clinical, educational, or societal environments	3. Ability to work as individual researchers/scholars as well as in collaboration with others in contributing to the scholarship of their disciplines as appropriate	Employer & Alumni Survey	12 months post graduation	Average rating of 3.5 on a scale of 1-5	To be determined Survey to be developed
Provide culturally appropriate health care to diverse communities	4. Relevant knowledge of the global perspectives appropriate to the discipline	Employer & Alumni Survey	12 months post graduation	Average rating of 3.5 on a scale of 1-5	To be determined Survey to be developed
Utilize evidence-based teaching strategies to facilitate learning in settings where nurses function as educators for nurses, students, patients, families, and communities and/or Work effectively within an interdisciplinary setting and with diverse professionals, patients, families, and communities	5. Knowledge of new and various methods and technologies as appropriate to the discipline	Teaching Portfolio Culminating Experience Employer & Alumni Survey	Upon completion of N5200 Final semester 12 months post graduation	Average score of 90% Minimum grade of 85% on 100% of papers/projects Average rating of 3.5 on a scale of 1-5	To be determined Survey to be developed
Practice skilled oral, written, and electronic communication that demonstrates the ability to express ideas in a variety of situations	6. Advanced oral and written communication skills, complemented as appropriate by the ability to access and analyze information from a myriad of primary, print, and technological sources.	Employer & Alumni Survey Culminating Experience	12 months post graduation % of papers submitted for publication	Average rating of 3.5 on a scale of 1-5 40% of students will submit papers for publication within the first year after graduation.	To be determined Survey to be developed Students will be surveyed 12 months post graduation