HOUSING AND RESIDENTIAL LIFE

2011-2012 HOUSING LICENSE AGREEMENT
FINANCIAL GUARANTOR/CO-SIGNER AGREEMENT

In compliance with the 2011-2012 Student Housing License Agreement all Licensees under the age of twenty-four years of age (24) are required to have a financial guarantor/co-signer. This guarantor/co-signer will bear shared financial responsibility for the cost of housing as determined by the Licensee's contract term and associated fees.

In accordance with Title V, Administrative Code 668.165 Housing and Residential Life will collect on charges due upon disbursement of a Licensee's financial aid award. Licensee and Guarantor/Co-Signer will be personally responsible for outstanding housing charges not paid in full by financial aid. It is the responsibility of the Licensee and the Guarantor/Co-Signer to ensure housing term charges have a zero balance upon conclusion of the contracted term.

In signing this agreement the designated guarantor/co-signer acknowledges that he or she has read the 2011-2012 Student Housing License Agreement and agrees to the terms, rate tables, policies and regulations specified in the License Agreement and the 2011-2012 Housing Administrative Policies and Regulations. These documents are viewable under the Forms and Publication page of the Housing website at <http://www.csustan.edu/housing>.

As part of the online application process the licensee provided Housing and Residential Life with the contact information for his or her preferred Financial Guarantor/Co-Signer. In signing and submitting this agreement you are verifying the contact information he or she submitted. In providing this information the licensee authorized a student record information release (as required by FERPA) specifically as it pertains to the Licensee's financial account/status with Housing and Residential Life. Please note that without an information release from the student Housing and Residential Life will not disclose financial information to any party other than the designated Financial Guarantor/Co-Signer.

Note: Individuals over 24 years of age may voluntarily designate a financial guarantor. Please review the information provided on the parents' resource page of the housing website for additional information on financial guarantors/co-signers.
