

Quick Facts

The purpose of the Quick Facts is to provide a "snapshot" of institutional data including information about the University history, census-date student enrollments and demographics, degrees awarded, educational programs, and faculty and staff population.

Academic Programs

The University offers over 100 majors, minors, concentrations and teaching credentials, 24 master's degree programs and six graduate certificate programs as well as an Executive MBA and a doctoral degree program in Educational Leadership. Students are encouraged to take courses to give them a broad understanding of the liberal arts and sciences in their first two years so they can make an informed choice of specialization.

Faculty

The highly accessible faculty is renowned for teaching, research, and service. More than half of the faculty are full time tenured or tenure track. Over eighty percent of full time faculty hold doctorates or terminal degrees in their fields. There are 283 full time and 107 part time faculty.

Student Body

The diverse student body includes many first generation college students and working parents. The student body of 8,586 includes 7,087 undergraduate students and 1,499 graduate students (fall 2009).
