

California State University, Stanislaus
Certification of Finance for Graduate Students

The United States Office of Citizenship and Immigration and the California State University System require international students to demonstrate that sufficient funding is available to meet all college and living expenses for one academic year before an I-20 can be issued. The student will also need to have copies of this form and all supporting documents available for the United States Consulate at the time of applying for an F-1 visa.

California State University, Stanislaus does not have financial aid for international students and off-campus employment is not permitted the first year of attendance. Currently tuition, fees, and living expenses total $19,949.50 for graduate students:

Tuition/Fees/Books	$11,868.00	(Fall and Spring Semesters/16 Units Total)
