The objective of the Student Leadership Program is to prepare CSU Stanislaus students for leadership roles within the community and beyond. The SLP provides a sequential learning experience designed to identify and foster individual leadership potential and civic responsiveness in students. The SLP combines effective leadership training with integrative service skills training to equip students with the essential tools needed to meet the personal and societal challenges of the new millennium.

PROGRAM SUMMARY

The CSU Stanislaus Student Leadership Program offers an opportunity for a select group of students to develop their understanding and appreciation of leadership development and skills. During the program students will:

- ➔ Gain confidence and experience in leading and interacting with others within diverse group settings
- ➔ Explore various leadership theories and styles
- ➔ Identify their own leadership style(s) and personality style
- ➔ Develop and incorporate team building and critical thinking skills
- ➔ Engage in a community service project
- ➔ Participate in social activities with other program participants
- ➔ Challenge their abilities, thoughts and understanding of self and others

California State University | Stanislaus

ABOUT

Are you up for a challenge? Want to develop your skills as a leader? The CSU Stanislaus Student Leadership Program offers a select group of students the opportunity to develop their understanding and appreciation of what it means to be a leader:

- Develop confidence in their ability to interact with others
- Identify their own leadership and personality styles
- Develop critical thinking and teambuilding skills
- Challenge their abilities, and gain an understanding of themselves and others.

REQUIREMENTS

To earn a Student Leadership Program Certification, students are required to complete the Summer Institute. Upon completion of this requirement, SLP students will receive their certificate, be honored at an awards reception, and be eligible to complete an online leadership certification course.

Certified Student Leader: Group Fundamentals This online course delivers some of the most important lessons in effective leadership, gleaned from the best practices of successful organizations worldwide:

- Conducting effective meetings
- Spearheading strategic planning
- Leading with integrity
- Embracing diversity and difference
- Transitioning leadership
- Planning and publicizing events

Each training module is led by a popular and experienced National Center for Student Leadership presenter. When joined with the SLP Summer Institute, you will be able to build a strong, cohesive, goal-focused student leadership team and lead that team with insight, impact and integrity.
