

The following is a tentative advising roadmap for the department's proposed Master of Arts degree in Sociology. The program is currently in the approval phase.

First Year, Fall

SOCL 5100 Social Theory and Policy, 4 units

SOCL 5200 Professional Writing, 3 units

SOCL 5300 Pro-seminar: Ethics and Practice, 3 units

First year, Spring

SOCL 5400 Social Inequalities and Diversity in Professional Settings, 3 units

SOCL 5500 Advanced Research Methods, 4 units

SOCL 5600 Teaching/Professional field placement, 3-6 units

Second year, Fall

SOCL 5700 Advanced Research Analysis, 4 units

SOCL 5800 Evaluation Research: Understanding Best Practice Models in Applied Settings, 3 units

SOCL 5900 Problem-Solving and Organizations, 3 units

Second Year, Spring*

SOCL 5950 Selected Topics in Sociology 6 (or as an elective, 3) or

SOCL 5960 Graduate project, 3-6 units or

SOCL 5990 Thesis, 3-6 units

* Upon approval of major adviser