Please respond to the following questions about this particular tutoring session:

1. How did you greet your writers?

2. How did you transition into tutoring?

3. Who set the goals for the session? What were they? If the goals were accomplished, how did this happen? If not, why?

4. What collaborative strategies did you use to encourage dialogue among the writers?

5. What, if any, writing process strategies were discussed?

6. Did the writers go home with specific ideas for revision or drafting? If so, what were they?

7. How did you end the session and why? Did the session end positively?

8. If given the opportunity to revise the session, what would you change?

9. How did your training in the Writing Center benefit this tutoring session?

10. What types of training might have better prepared you for this session or any other session?
