Rev. Sept. '12

If you want to make money, you must learn to follow the money. At CSU Stanislaus, our Finance graduates understand that tenet. Business finance is the three-fold function of determining funds requirements, evaluating and selecting alternate sources of funds, and managing available funds to achieve specified objectives.

Where can you go with a degree in finance? Some possible career paths and fields of work include commercial banking, corporate finance, real estate, financial planning, insurance, investment banking, money management, teaching, consulting and underwriting.
