

California State University, Stanislaus
University Student Union
Non-Discrimination Policy

The University Student Union of California State University, Stanislaus does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, physical disability or sexual orientation in the events, programs, or other activities it conducts.

The University Student Union is committed to providing equal opportunities to men and women in all events and programs provided or sponsored by the University Student Union.

The University Student Union prohibits discrimination of current or potential students and employees with Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV). They shall be afforded unrestricted working conditions, use of University Student Union facilities and participation in University Student Union events and programs as long as they are physically and psychologically able to do so.

No person shall, on the grounds of race, color, or national origin be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity sponsored by the University Student Union.

Complaints should be addressed to the University Student Union Director. Retaliation on the basis of a complaint is prohibited and all inquiries will be confidential to the extent permitted by law.

This policy may be amended by a majority vote of the University Student Union Board of Directors.
