

Tips for Firefox & Safari

This guide outlines various tips related to Firefox and Safari as it relates to myCSUSTAN Faculty Center.

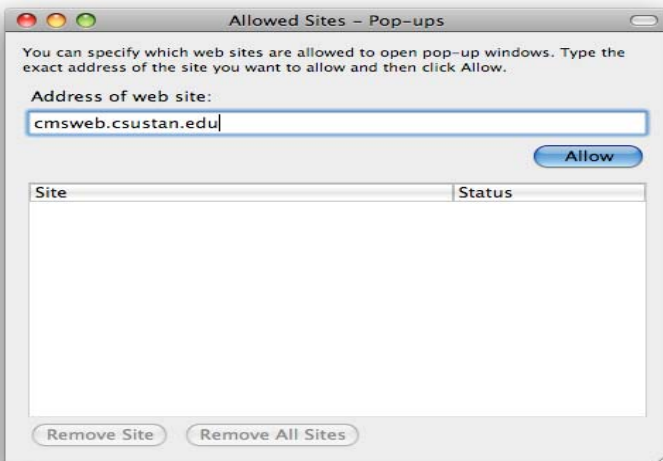

Setting up Firefox to allow Pop-ups from myCSUSTAN Faculty Center to enable downloading:

Following are steps required to set up your Pop-Ups for Firefox browser in order to have the ability to download your class roster, grade roster, etc. from myCSUSTAN Faculty Center to Excel.

Setting up Firefox to allow Pop-ups from

1. Start up your Firefox browser
2. Click the Firefox menu and select Preferences
3. Select the Contents tab from the top of the Preferences Window
4. Next press the Exceptions button that corresponds to Block pop-up windows. (the first one)

5. In the Address of web site bar type: cmsweb.csustan.edu
6. Click the Allow button to add the URL to the list of allowed sites.
7. You can now close the allowed sites and preferences windows to save your new settings.

Printing Class or Grade Rosters from Firefox or Safari:

Following should be noted for each browser:

- Safari:
 - When printing class or grade rosters with Safari as the browser, all pages will print fine, but the page heading may be a off.
- Firefox:
 - When printing class or grade rosters with Firefox as the browser, only one(1) page prints.
- Downloading to Excel
 - Downloading class or grade rosters to Excel works with Firefox and Safari.