

2011 Summer at Stanislaus MUSIC

an inspiring week-long camp
for students in grades 6-12

DEDICATED TO ENCOURAGING YOUNG MUSICIANS TO REACH THEIR HIGHEST POTENTIAL

Summer Music at Stanislaus is located on the beautiful campus of California State University, Stanislaus. This picturesque location, noted for its scenic lakes and waterfalls is the perfect location in which to make music, build friendships and have fun! Campers from all sessions will complete their week-long experience with performances by the band, orchestra, choir (senior session only), and piano ensembles in the stunning Snider Recital Hall. Other concerts include the Honors Chamber Camp recital, faculty recital, and Friday afternoon chamber music recital.

Imagination is more important than knowledge

— Albert Einstein
(scientist and violinist.)

Campers are housed on campus in air-conditioned rooms in the University's housing complex under the supervision of camp staff. Recreation includes swimming, staff-organized recreational games, game room with pool table, and a trip to "Funworks" arcade and amusement park in Modesto. Friday nights feature a special BBQ and ice cream social.

Join us for a motivating, inspiring and fun week of music making!

What students and parents are saying about Summer Music Camp at Stanislaus:

"Many young people don't get this kind of experience until they are in college or graduate school."

"[Your camp] has made our daughter realize how important music is to her..."

"For the first time, [my son] felt completely surrounded and supported by peers. It was 'cool' to want to work hard, learn well, and love music"

"It's an amazing experience being part of a band or orchestra, especially a capable one of which I can feel truly proud."

CHAMBER MUSIC CAMP

(grades 9-12) June 15-25, 2011

FULL SCHOLARSHIP

A select group (up to 28) accomplished musicians will be selected by taped audition and awarded a Full Scholarship to participate in the chamber camp.

Chamber Music Camp is an intense program for the finest young musicians in California. Students may choose to audition for any one of the following ensembles: String Quartet, Vocal Octet, Brass Quintet, Woodwind Quintet, Saxophone Quartet, or Piano Duo. (In addition, the pianists also may have the opportunity to combine with the string quartet or woodwind quintet.) Chamber groups will participate in approximately four hours of coaching daily with faculty and will be highlighted in a chamber music concert on June 20. The remainder of camp will consist of continued participation with their chamber groups and with the Senior Camp band, orchestra or choir.

Audition requirements:

A $25 non-refundable processing fee is required with your application and recording. (If you are not accepted for Chamber Camp and would like to attend Senior Camp, the $25 will be applied toward tuition.) Audition tapes must be postmarked by April 2. Students will be notified by May 7. All CDs/tapes should include two pieces in contrasting styles (an etude can substitute for one of the pieces).

In addition, the following is also required:

Winds &amp; Brass:	please use the CBDA All-State high school scales (available from www.cbda.org )
Strings:	2 three-octave scales: one major and one minor (melodic).
Singers:	a chromatic scale demonstrating your range.

Pianists: Piano students are selected by participating in the Sylvia Ghiglieri Piano Competition (to be held on April 16, 2011 at CSU Stanislaus – contact the Music Dept. www.csustan.edu/Music. The top two winners will be offered scholarships to the Chamber Camp. Audition tapes will be considered if the winners of the competition are not able to come to camp (see requirements above).

JUNIOR CAMP (grades 6-8) June 12-18, 2011

Junior Camp is open to all band, orchestra, and piano students (pianists: please see information below), who have completed grades six through eight in the spring of 2011. Students will participate in concert band or orchestra as major performing ensembles. In addition, campers will have daily sectional rehearsals, elective classes (conducting, music history, music theory, beginning piano, vocal techniques, composition, and jazz ensemble), and the opportunity to participate in chamber ensembles. Private lessons from faculty may also be available for an additional fee.

SENIOR CAMP

(grades 9-12)

June 19-25, 2011

Senior Camp is open to all band, orchestra, choral, and piano students (pianists: please see information below), who have completed grades nine through twelve in the spring of 2011. In addition to concert band, orchestra, and choir as major performing ensembles, students will have the opportunity to perform in chamber ensembles and may take a variety of elective classes including conducting, music history, music theory, beginning piano, vocal techniques, composition, jazz ensemble and improvisation. Private lessons from faculty may also be available for an additional fee. An audition tape is required for all graduating eighth grade instrumentalists wishing to enroll in Senior Session. The tape should consist of a two-octave scale and a solo that demonstrates technical and musical ability.

Pianists will receive a daily individual lesson in a master class format, classes in piano literature, keyboard harmony and technique, and piano ensemble. In addition, students will have elective classes from which to choose (see descriptions under Junior or Senior camp headings). Piano Camp will culminate with a concluding performance celebrating each student's accomplishments. For more information about pianists' schedule see the FAQs page on our website: www.csustan.edu/music/camp

NEW THIS YEAR to the vocal program will be a musical theatre section as part of the choir program. All enrolled choir students will have the opportunity to learn major chorus and ensemble pieces from popular Broadway shows. Lessons will include stage movement and choreography, acting, character analysis, and Musical Theatre appreciation.

NEW!

COMPOSERS CAMP

(grades 9-12) June 19-25, 2011

The Composers Program will be offered to high school students who wish to develop their compositional skills. Composers will receive multiple lessons in a master class format with Dr. Brett Abigaña, an internationally known composer and Composition Program director. In addition, students will participate in classes in counterpoint, harmony, contemporary theory, the business side of composition, and conducting. Students will also have elective classes from which to choose (see descriptions under Senior camp headings). Throughout the composition program, there will be ample opportunity for readings and performances of the students' works by their peers and faculty/staff. To Register, please contact Dr. Daniel Davies at: ddavies@csustan.edu.
