

Project Rebound is a supportive program that offers a community for formerly incarcerated scholars in higher education.

For more information, contact
our Program Coordinator, Danica Bravo.

(209) 667-3039

@projectreboundstanstate

dbravo1@csustan.edu

@ProjectReboundCSUStan

Project Rebound
STANISLAUS STATE

Services Offered:

- Advocacy
- Academic advising
- Basic needs assistance
- Cap, gown, and sash for graduation
- Career and professional development opportunities (conferences, resume review, etc.)
- Correspondence with potential participants who are currently incarcerated
- Counseling and wellness services
- Enrollment assistance
- Financial aid assistance
- Housing assistance
- Laptop rentals
- Mentorship
- Parole and probation advocacy
- Public speaking opportunities (jails, prisons, juvenile halls, community-based organizations)
- Scholarships exclusively for our students
- Support and guidance for community college transfer students
- Support for systems-impacted families
- Textbook vouchers
- Tutoring
- Workshops (expungements, employment, etc.)

Locations:

HOME CAMPUS (TURLOCK)

One University Circle
Turlock, California 95382

STOCKTON CAMPUS

612 East Magnolia Street
Stockton, CA 95202-18452

For correspondence, please mail to:

Stanislaus State University
Project Rebound/Danica Bravo
Vasché Library, L230
One University Circle
Turlock, California 95382