

McNair Scholars Course Sequence for the Honors Capstone Project

To complete your Honors Capstone Project, in which you have the chance to craft a research project or produce a scholarly or creative work in your field of interest, you'll want to make sure you plan ahead for the classes you need. We only offer each class once each year in the semesters shown. Please note that there are different course options for McNair Scholars to accommodate the summer research internship.

Fall Semester

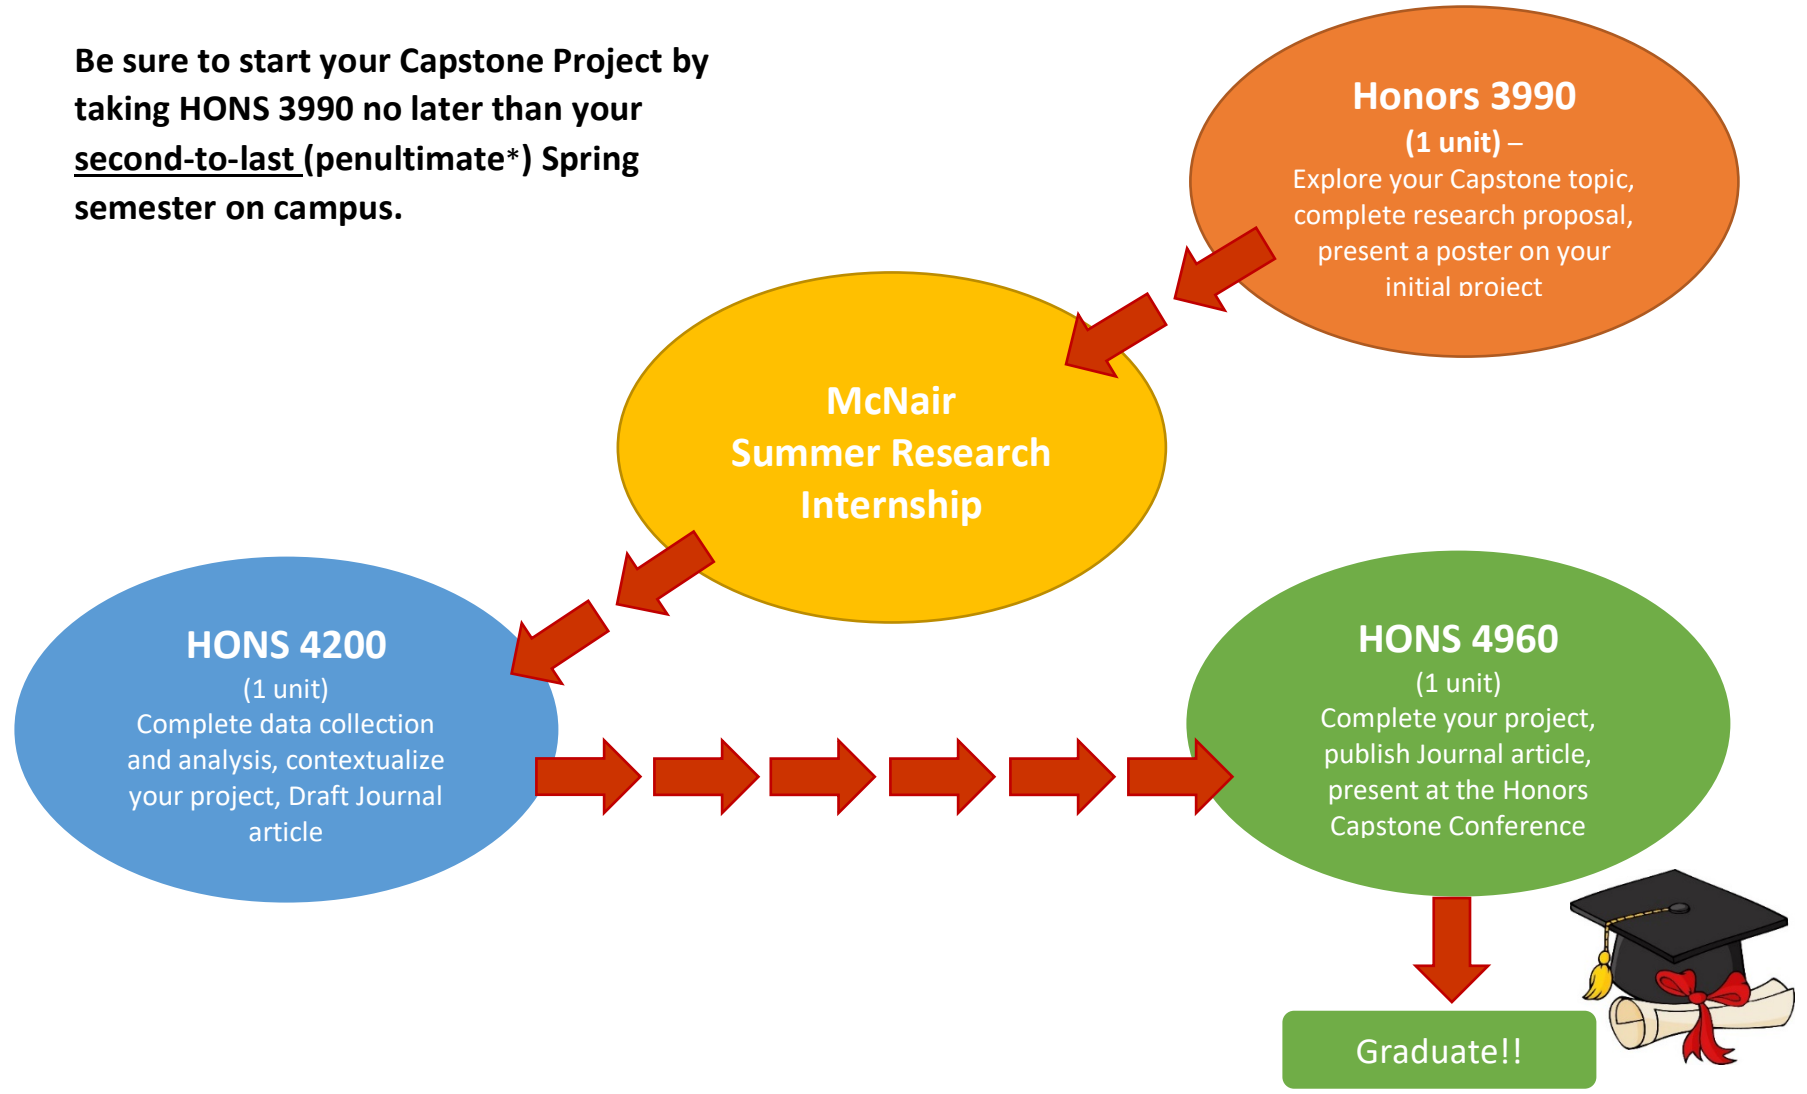

Summer Term

Spring Semester

Be sure to start your Capstone Project by taking HONS 3990 no later than your second-to-last (penultimate*) Spring semester on campus.
