

July 13, 2022

Green Social Work: Reducing Food Insecurity
Through Community Gardening Local and Global Initiative
California State University, Stanislaus
Department of Social Work
One University Circle
Turlock, CA 95832

Dear Students,

We are pleased to announce that your student group, Green Social Work: Reducing Food Insecurity Through Community Gardening Local and Global Initiative:

- Britney Hayes
- Lisa Raimondo
- Samantha Keiser
- Nohely Padilla-Aguilar
- Monica Salgado
- Jocelyn Garcia
- Lea Carrasco
- Jovana Perez-Hernandez
- Rachel Riojas

Faculty Lead: Dr. Sevaughn Banks

have been selected to receive a 2022 Partners in Advancing Education for International (PIE) Social Work Award in the student/student group category as a result of being nominated by Dr. Felicia Tuggle. The CSWE Global Commission is delighted to recognize your extraordinary achievements in international social work education.

Since its inception in 2003, the Partners in Advancing Education for International Social Work (PIE) Awards recognizes contributions of the advancement of conceptual, curricular, and programmatic innovations in education for international social work. Each year the CSWE Commission on Global Social Work Education selects three (3) partner awards for each of the following categories:

1. Individual (Faculty)
2. Student or Student Organization
3. National or International Organization

As a 2022 awardee you each will receive an award recognizing your international global social work project and achievements during CSWE's Annual Program Meeting (APM) to be held in Anaheim, California, November 10 – 13, 2022.

The PIE Awards will be presented prior to the Hokenstad International Lecture on Saturday, November 12th at 9:00AM PST. Please note, while we hope each of you will be able to attend the APM, unfortunately we cannot offer financial support.

In preparation for the PIE awards, please send a group photo or group organization (a university logo – as long as it is approved – can suffice) to Lorenzo Shaw-Graham (lgraham@cswe.org), to be included in our marketing materials, webpage announcement, and in the APM program book by Friday, July 30th. Please also let Lorenzo know how you would like for your name(s) to appear on the award and if you plan on attending APM to receive your award in person.