

DR. MARVALENE HUGHES LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE 2023

CALL FOR PROGRAMS – FACULTY / STAFF

We are seeking presenters to facilitate a 60-minute program and/or workshop during the Dr. Marvalene Hughes Leadership Conference Breakout Sessions. There will be three Breakout Sessions with four different tracks students can choose to participate in:

- Discovering the Leader in You
- Leading Through Diversity and Inclusion
- Serving in and Leading Student Organizations
- Leadership Education and Community Engagement

If interested in presenting by yourself and/or with a co-presenter, please complete the Program Proposal Form below. Deadline for program proposals are Friday, February 10th!

Conference Information

The Dr. Marvalene Hughes Leadership Conference is a two-day conference that will be held Friday, March 3, from 11:30 a.m. – 5:30 p.m. and Saturday, March 4, from 7:30 a.m. – 5:30 p.m. This year's theme is “Renewing Our Warrior Strength.” This conference is a comprehensive experience focusing on building individual student leadership skills and fostering student engagement interactions. Our goal is to provide students with an opportunity to learn and discuss the leadership development tools needed to meet the personal and societal challenges they will encounter as students and professionals.

The objective of this conference is to inculcate students with the skills and mindset needed to empower themselves as change agents who demonstrate responsible leadership in their careers and communities. The Conference will include energetic speakers, lunch, and breakout sessions covering topics such as student organizations, public speaking, career development, leadership development, community engagement, and more. The Conference will help students discover their leadership potential and gain the knowledge to cultivate their leadership style.

Students who attend the Conference will earn the Dr. Marvalene Hughes Student Leadership Conference certificate, which commemorates their commitment to inspire and change the world while doing service for others in their communities. Students can add the Conference to their co-curricular transcripts highlighting their participation in the Conference and dedication to becoming change agents.

Learning Outcomes

1. Apply leadership principles to problem solve and think critically to enhance personal and professional growth.
2. Articulate the connection between leadership opportunity and application for personal and professional growth.
3. Identify and explore foundational leadership skills such as leadership styles, effective communication, collaboration, diversity/inclusion, and group dynamics.
4. Increase awareness and understanding of how to work collaboratively with diverse individuals and groups.
5. Develop an understanding of wellness and healthy relationships by developing wellness-related knowledge and behaviors that promote individual and community well-being.
