

Papageorge Award Elizabeth Anne B. Papageorge, CSU Stanislaus Emeritus Professor of Education was a strong supporter of faculty members. Her efforts made a positive impact on the careers of many faculty at CSU Stanislaus. In honor of her consistent support for incoming faculty, her enthusiasm for the art of teaching, and her dedication to student learning, the Office of the Provost and the Faculty Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning (FCETL) created the "Elizabeth Anne B. Papageorge Faculty Development Award." The purpose of this award is to recognize and encourage outstanding achievement (primarily, but not limited to, teaching) by a probationary faculty member at CSU Stanislaus.

In addition to a monetary award of not less than $500, the recipient's name will be inscribed on a perpetual plaque displayed in the FCETL. 16/AS/02/SEC approved 12/3/02 by the Academic Senate.
