

California State University, Stanislaus
WASC EDUCATIONAL EFFECTIVENESS REVIEW SITE VISIT
March 1-3, 2010

Notification of WASC Confidential Email Account

California State University, Stanislaus is hosting a site visit in connection with its reaccreditation review by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) on March 1-3, 2010.

The following four themes, identified by CSU Stanislaus as part of its Self-Study for reaccreditation, focus on educational effectiveness and student learning:

- Student Learning and Engagement
- Support for Learning
- Teaching and Learning
- Research, Scholarship, and Creative Activity

The visiting team schedule includes meetings in order to seek input from the campus community. In addition, the WASC team hosts a confidential email site so that persons from the campus community can communicate with the team. Campus comments are sent directly to the team chair and are not viewed by any representative of the institution.

Institutional reports, on-campus meetings, open sessions, and email responses received become part of the information collected and reviewed by the team. Team members will not respond individually to the comments provided through any of these venues, including those made through the confidential email account. Only comments received prior to and during the site visit dates will be considered as part of the review process. This input, along with other forms of information, will be considered as the WASC team undertakes its work and develops recommendations to the institution.

To communicate to the WASC team, please address your email to:

wasc2csustan@yahoo.com

This email address is a secure location to which only authorized WASC team members have access through the use of a password provided by WASC staff. This site will be terminated at the end of the site visit.
