Secular Miracles and other Unexpected Crossings in the Politics of Immigration

Presented by
Dr. Aimee Villarreal
Tenure Track Candidate in Ethnic Studies

Wednesday, April 30, 2014
10 - 11 a.m.
Bizzini Hall, Room C212

What is a sanctuary city? Can a driver’s license have a soul? Is the Holy Spirit a political force? These questions permeate this investigation of unexpected crossings between secular and religious spaces, ideas, and practices in the politics of immigration.