With a broad range of faculty expertise and course offerings, expanding students’ horizons is not a problem for the College of Humanities and Social Sciences.

About the College

Central to the mission of the College of Humanities and Social Sciences is fostering an appreciation and understanding of the value of lifelong intellectual pursuit. The College is committed to a liberal arts curriculum that broadens the mind and encourages students to become active, engaged, compassionate participants in our diverse global society.

The College houses 11 diverse departments, more than any college on campus. Thanks to dedicated faculty who serve as advisers and mentors to students, individualized focus is always achievable.

Of Note

• The Gender Studies B.A. is one of the newest programs on campus, adding to the College’s array of diverse offerings.

• The Department of Philosophy and Modern Languages offers instruction in Spanish and Portuguese as well as Japanese, Chinese, Arabic, Hmong, and Sign Language.

• The Center for Public Policy Studies is one of the College’s six centers and institutes. Visit www.csustan.edu/AcademicPrograms to learn more.

• The College hosts the Ronald McNair Scholars Program, which helps students prepare for graduate level study at the Ph.D. level.

In the News

History Assistant Professor Jonathan David, above, was recently part of an archaeological dig called The Megiddo Expedition. Located in Israel’s Holy Land, Megiddo is one of many captivating places across the world where students have opportunities to enrich classroom experiences with rewarding field work.
