This guide outlines the process to view courses within the University catalog.

1. Enter the Subject Area
2. Click the Search button
Course Catalog Search

Catalog Search Results

CSU Stanislaus | Computer Science

3. The results will display all courses within that subject

4. Click the Return to Search link to do another search

---

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course</th>
<th>Course Detail</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| CS 1000 - Introduction to Computers | Units: 3 units
Grading Basis: Student Option
Course Component: Discussion, Required | Introduction to the computer for the non-computer science major. Selected computer applications, beginning programming, review of hardware and software, social impact of computing, and the future of the computer. Use of microcomputers. Corequisite: CS 1002. (Lecture/2 hours, laboratory/2 hours) (Fall, Spring) |
| CS 1002 - Introduction to Computers | Units: 0 units
Grading Basis: Non-Graded Component
Course Component: Laboratory, Required | |
| CS 1020 - Elements of Computing | Units: 1 unit
Grading Basis: Student Option
Course Component: Lecture, Required | Introduction to the computer for the non-computer science major. Selected computer applications, review of hardware and software components of a computer, social impact of computing, and the future of the computer. Use of personal computers, particularly effective use of common tools like word processors and spreadsheets. Enrollment preference will be given to CAMP program participants. Freshman only. (Lecture, 1 hour) (Fall) |