Job Description

Lilliput Children's Services is a private, non-profit agency licensed by the State of California. We're Northern California's domestic adoption specialists, completing more foster adoptions than any other private adoption agency. We are a leading Kinship Care services provider in California.

We have an immediate opening for a full time (32 hours/week) Social Worker in our Stockton Office.

Applications that do not demonstrate the minimum qualifications will not be considered.

Qualifications

Required to have the following skills:

- Proficient in Microsoft Word.
- Knowledge of Microsoft Outlook, Excel, Access, Publisher and PowerPoint is preferred.
- Required to communicate effectively both verbally and in writing with supervisors, employees and the public.
- Mastery of the English language including the ability to edit and ensure grammatical correctness of written materials in English.

Required to have the ability to:

- Complete Adoption Home Study assessments using SAFE format.
- Understand, interpret and apply the laws, rules and regulations governing the operations of public social services agencies, Foster Family Agency homes (FFA) and adoptions.
- Establish rapport with applicants and to work with diverse populations including with foster/adoptive families, birth families, kin caregivers and extended family members.
- Control personal biases and maintain personal and professional boundaries with applicants.
