Mary Stuart Rogers Building 245, (209) 667-3661 web.csustan.edu/career

The Career Services Center assists students in the process of identifying, developing, implementing, and evaluating career plans to prepare for employment after graduation. The mission of the Center is to serve as a vital link between the academic preparation that takes place in the classroom and the transition to the workplace. The staff develops relationships with a diverse group of employers and organizations to obtain occupational information and opportunities for students that will guide their career development process.

The Career Services Center offers:
- Alumni Services
- Career Counseling
- Career Fair
- Career Resource Library
- Computer workstations
- Faculty Support
- On-Campus Interviews
- Job Announcements
- Student Employment Service
- Workshops
Counseling Services
Mary Stuart Rogers Building 210, (209) 667-3381
www.csustan.edu/counseling
The mission of Counseling Services is to provide ethical, voluntary, and confidential psychological counseling to students. Counselors are trained professionals who provide understanding and objective feedback for students dealing with varied life problems. Counseling helps students develop cognitive and emotional integration, relationship skills, and personal resilience. Counselors also provide immediate intervention for students dealing with crises and urgent concerns.

Counseling is available, free of charge, to currently enrolled students at CSU Stanislaus. Consultation to assess a situation, to share information, or to learn about referral resources is offered by phone or by appointment to staff, faculty, and family of students, as well as to students.

Individual Personal Counseling
Students can arrange individual appointments with a professional counselor. All counseling faculty have extensive training and experience assisting students with a wide range of psychological and interpersonal concerns. Listed below are some of the common issues that students present:

- negative or depressed mood
- anxiety
- dealing with a crisis
- stress management
- academic focus and success
- concerns about eating and body image
- abuse of alcohol and other drugs
- grief and loss
- sexuality
- personal relationships
- family relationships
- multicultural issues
- dealing with trauma and abuse

Couples Counseling
Counseling Services offers relationship counseling for partners or spouses to work on behaviors, communication or other issues facing them as a couple. Both partners/spouses must currently be enrolled students at CSUS to participate in couples counseling.

Psychoeducational Presentations and Groups
Counseling faculty provide educational outreach to address psychological topics in various campus settings as well as in the Counseling Center. Examples of such programming include: Stress Management, Test Anxiety and Academic Pressure, Intimate Relationships, Eating and Body Image, Self-Esteem and Self-Care, and Dealing with Depression. Counseling Services lists topics to be presented each term in a brochure available at the Counseling Center. Consult the Website for information on presentations.

Tutoring Services
Library Building 112, (209) 667-3642
Students having difficulty with an academic subject area may receive free tutoring support. Individual or group tutoring is available for most classes. Students who have received an ‘A’ or ‘B’ in a class are eligible to become a paid tutor for that class.

Disability Resource Services
Mary Stuart Rogers Building 210, (209) 667-3159, (209) 667-3044 TDD
The Disability Resource Services Office works closely with students with disabilities to arrange individualized accommodation plans to meet their unique needs. The Office provides support services that may include: assistance with registration, orientation to campus, notetakers, readers, interpreters/captioners, campus shuttle, designated parking, testing accommodations, material in alternate format, technology assistance, counseling, and liaison with faculty, University offices, and off-campus agencies.

Educational Opportunity Program (EOP)
Mary Stuart Rogers Building 180, (209) 667-3108
The Educational Opportunity Program (EOP) provides special admission to low-income students at a disadvantage because of poor academic preparation or inadequate financial resources. EOP applicants apply jointly for admission to the University and to the EOP program. EOP students are eligible for special support services including academic advising, assistance with study skills, and special workshops.

Faculty Mentor Program
Dorothy and Bill Bizzini Hall 136A, (209) 667-3021
The Faculty Mentor Program (FMP) provides students with personal faculty mentors who engage them in a year-long program of voluntary activities and workshops in a variety of cultural, social, and recreational environments designed to retain and graduate students. A faculty mentor is an available advocate, resource, facilitator, and friend to students. A unique and comprehensive faculty training program provides tools to promote faculty-student out-of-class interactions that have been shown to have a positive effect on learning.

Advising Resource Center
Mary Stuart Rogers Building 180, (209) 667-3304
To obtain a faculty adviser, students should visit or call their major department. If they have not declared a major, they will receive advisement from the Advising Resource Center. If they are uncertain about their choice of major or vocational goals, they should seek assistance from their faculty adviser, the Counseling Department, or Career Services.

Advisers can help students plan their educational program, but students are responsible for meeting all course prerequisites and all requirements for their degree or credential. There are specific academic advising days each semester which are designated in the College Year Calendar. In addition, students may make appointments throughout the academic year to discuss their educational progress and goals.
Undergraduate students must receive mandatory, personal advising from their major/concentration/program(s) advisor at a point determined by their major department/concentration/program(s) which lies between the completion of 75 and 90 units. This point is indicated in the catalog description of each department/concentration/program.
