

FACULTY POSITION

California State University Stanislaus
One University Circle
Turlock, CA 95382

- POSITION: Lecturer in Geography. The Geography Program invites applications for a part-time lecturer position from candidates qualified to teach Cultural Geography (GEOG 3010), Africa, South of the Sahara (GEOG 3530) and Geographic Problems in the Developing World (GEOG 4210) during the 2015-2016 academic year. Because additional needs might arise, applicants are encouraged to identify any of the following areas of coursework they would be qualified to teach in: introductory and upper-division undergraduate courses in cultural/human geography, physical geography, and GIS/geospatial technology. Candidates interested in teaching more advanced courses should indicate the range and depth of their relevant professional training.
- MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: A Ph.D. in Geography is preferred. An M.A. or M.S. in Geography will be considered with evidence of strong teaching or fieldwork experience.
- PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Evidence of impressive undergraduate teaching and a strong record of fieldwork.
- HOW TO APPLY & DEADLINE: A complete application is required for committee review and must include: an application letter addressing the position description and qualifications as outlined above; unofficial copies of graduate transcripts; and a CV listing names and contact information for three references. Screening of complete application files will begin on May 15th and continue until the position is filled.
- Send applications and all correspondence concerning this announcement, to:
