POSITION: Part-Time Instructors: The Department of Social Work invites applications for part-time instructors for opening(s) during the 2013-14 academic year. The person(s) appointed to these positions will teach one or more graduate level courses in Foundation or Advanced Social Work Practice or Human Behavior and the Social Environment, or will serve as faculty field liaison for field practicum courses (Field Instruction I and/or II). Beyond the normal teaching responsibilities associated with courses, field liaisons serve as the primary university representative in collaborations involving field instructors and students in practicum. Field liaisons must visit assigned students and field instructors in their agency settings, provide consultation and collaboration, review students’ learning contracts, assist in the evaluation of student performance, and facilitate integrative field seminars on a bi-weekly basis. Field liaisons are also expected to participate in student field orientations and field instructor training.

MINIMUM REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS: Masters of Social Work (MSW) degree and a minimum of two years post-MSW practice experience. Prior teaching or training experience. Experience and demonstrated competence working with a diverse group of people. Flexibility and control over personal schedule and personal transportation, valid driver’s license, and insurance are required for field liaison assignments.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Five years of post-MSW practice experience that includes supervisory responsibilities is preferred. Prior teaching experience at the college level is highly desirable.

HOW TO APPLY & DEADLINE: A complete application must include: a letter of interest specifically addressing the position description and qualifications; unofficial copies of graduate transcripts (official transcripts will be required prior to hire); a professional résumé, including the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three references. Screening of completed application files will begin immediately and be on-going. The positions will remain open until filled.
