STAR Staff Recognition Awards
Outstanding Contribution Award $750
Self nominations are encouraged

DESCRIPTION:
The STAR Awards are presented annually to staff members who exemplify exceptional performance, integrity, and service to the University community.

Outstanding Contribution Award: This award is presented to a staff member who makes the best recommendation that, when implemented, produces a significant and measurable cost savings to the University. The cost savings can be direct, such as an actual dollar savings; or indirect, such as reducing staff time.

NOMINATION CRITERIA:
Nominations may be placed by faculty, staff, administrators, and students. Nomination deadline is April 15, 2010. Previous year’s winner is not eligible for nomination.

Please provide specific examples of how the nominee’s recommendation:

1. Was an original idea implemented within the past 12 months; and improved processes resulting in significant increase to productivity, service, safety, or cost savings to the University.
2. Exemplifies citizenship of the University and local community through service to others and successful involvement in programs or initiatives aligned with the University Mission.
3. Utilized current University resources in a creative and effective way; or, was a cost effective if a purchase was required.

ELIGIBILITY:
Recipient must be a benefits eligible staff member of the University. Auxiliary employees are also eligible.

AWARDS:
One staff member will be honored each year. Recipients will receive a $750 cash award and a framed certificate at the annual Employee Recognition event. Their pictures will be posted on the STAR Awards Wall of Fame. They will be recognized in the CSU-Stan newsletter and on the STAR Awards website.
