

PRE-FRESHMAN ENRICHMENT PROGRAM

MATH AND SCIENCE CAMP FOR MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS

What: Pre-Freshman Enrichment Program (PREP) 2012 is a Math and Science Summer Camp designed to:

- Enhance students' understanding of mathematics, its power, and its utility.
- Offer experiences in Physics, Chemistry, Astronomy, Earth Science & Life Science.
- Promote intellectual development and critical thinking skills.
- Introduce students to programming and robotics.

Who Can Attend: Students who will be entering grades 7-9 in Fall of 2012

How to Apply: Students must complete a PREP 2012 Application and submit an essay on topic of choice. Applications will be processed in the order received.

Dates: Monday - Thursday June 11 - June 28

Time: 9:00am - 3:00pm

Location: CSU Stanislaus Campus

Three Field Trips: PREP has planned field trips to the California Academy of Sciences, Turlock Recycling Center, and Ron's Reptile Kingdom

Dress Code: Students are required to wear the PREP Academy uniform; Academy t-shirt with black, navy, khaki or white slacks/jeans or knee-length shorts or skirts. Closed-toe shoes must be worn during P.E.

Cost: $400 per participant if paid by May 25, 2012
$500 per participant if paid after May 25, 2012

Lunch and snacks will be provided.

For Information: Visit <http://www.csustan.edu/math/Pages/grantsprograms.php> or contact the Math Grants office at mathgrants@csustan.edu or (209) 667-3780