

This program is required for students who first enroll at CSUS or a community college in 2003-2004. Students with earlier admission dates may elect this program by submitting written notification to the University and Department prior to requesting a graduation evaluation. Moving to the new program will not affect your GE requirements.

A form for electing the new program is available in the Psychology Department Office. All previous petitions for substitutions to the major will become void when the new program is elected. Students who move to the new program cannot make substitutions for any of the requirements specific below.
