Statutory Rape-Forcible sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

Timely Warnings
To minimize the number of criminal incidents, University Police Officers, Securitas Security, students, and members of the wider campus community participate in a number of shared responsibilities to ensure that all students and their possessions are protected as much as possible. On occasion, you will see timely warning notices describing recent crime trends or dangerous incidents that present an immediate threat to others. It is our policy to post these notices around campus to provide our community with information about the incidents and crime prevention recommendations. Once all relevant information is received and verified, these notices will typically be posted.

Security of and Access to Campus Facilities
All campus facilities are key accessed, and most are open daily for scheduled campus community use. Campus key control and distribution is a function of Groupe Commercial Services.

To provide for the security of campus facilities, the University Police enforces Educational Code 89031 & Housing Policies. Campus facility access may be revoked per Penal Code 626.

Security Considerations Used in Maintenance of Campus Facilities
Securitas Security and Groupe Commercial Services are responsible for security of all campus facilities. Personnel perform daily building lock-up and monitor all maintenance issues in campus lighting, door locks and general environmental safety. Regular inspections and surveys of campus indoor/outdoor lighting, shrubbery and walkways are conducted. The University participates in Crime Prevention through Environmental Design concepts for planning and improvements on campus.

Student Discipline

Students may be expelled, suspended, or placed on probation with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act (see appendix A). You will also be able to connect to our site via the CSU Stanislaus Home page at www.csustan.edu (see appendix B). This report is prepared in cooperation with the Police agencies surrounding our main campus, and our alternate sites, Housing and Residential Services, the Judicial Affairs Officer and the Division of Student Affairs. Each entity provides updated information on their educational efforts and programs.

University Police Services collects crime statistics from local police agencies. The University does not recognize any off campus fraternity or sorority houses. The fall term of every year, a postcard is mailed to all enrolled students, faculty and staff that provides the web site to access this report (see appendix D). Copies of the report may also be obtained at the Campus Services Building (north end of campus), e-mail request to Public_Safety@csustan.edu or by calling (209) 667-3114. All CSU employees received a notice concerning this information on their August 31, 2008 paycheck.

CSU Stanislaus Graduation Rates

Institutions of higher education are required to disclose information to prospective and current students about institutional graduation rates for first-time freshmen. Since 1960, the CSU has awarded more than 2.5 million baccalaureate degrees in hundreds of program areas. The rate of graduation will vary depending upon the needs of the individual student to balance work, school and family priorities. Information specific to CSU Stanislaus graduation rates appears below. Additional information regarding graduation rates of first-time freshmen is available from the Office of Institutional Research at (209) 667-3281.

The CSU Stanislaus campus is comprised of 6 colleges: Arts, Business Administration Education, Human Health Sciences, Humanities and Social Sciences, and Natural Sciences. The University grants the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Music, and Bachelor of Science degrees, and offers 36 undergraduate degree programs. Twenty-seven degree programs have an available minor option, and there are an additional 16 distinct minor programs available. A pre-professional law program is offered, as well as a pre-health professional program for students interested in medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, veterinary medicine, optometry, chiropractics, physical therapy, clinical laboratory, science, or podiatry. The University offers 15 graduate degree programs and seven credential programs.

The 5-year annual average of Bachelor's and Master's degree awards is 1,603.

CSU Stanislaus' six-year graduation rate for degree-seeking regularly admitted first-time full time freshmen (2001-2007) is 51.6%, which compares to a CSU system wide rate of 47.4%.

Sex Offender Registration Policy

“Sex offenders who are enrolled as students or employed by, or who carry on a vocation or volunteer at a university, college, community college, or other institution of higher learning, must register with the campus police department”. (Penal Code 290.01)

A registered sex offender within the state of California is required to notify and register with the University Police Department within five (5) business days from the beginning of classes when enrolling as a student; or within five business days from the date of hire for employment with the University.

When a registrant with the University Police Department as required, and takes classes in continuous sessions broken only by standard winter, summer, and holiday breaks, they do not have to re-register each year. If they skip at least one semester, they must re-register with University Police.

A registrant is required to notify the campus police within five (5) business days when their student status is discontinued. However, if they are returning as a student after a normal winter/summer break, they do not have to notify the campus police.

If a registrant is employed or enrolls in class(es) solely at the California State University, Stanislaus Stockton campus, including all on-line classes even if they never meet in person, they are only required to register in that jurisdiction with the City of Stockton Police Department.

If a registrant is employed or enrolls for any class(es) at the California State University, Stanislaus Turlock campus, including all on-line classes even if they never meet in person, they are required to register with the campus Police Department.

As provided by law, the California State University, Stanislaus Police Department does not maintain Sexual Offender registration information in the ARMS master database, and it is not required to assign a new file number upon registration with our jurisdiction. Our local 290 FC registration is currently maintained in a separate sexual file under the control of the University Police Sergeants.
Sexual Assault Policy and Procedures

Complaint Procedures

Individuals in the campus community are strongly encouraged to report any incident of sexual assault to any Campus Security Authority such as, but not limited to, University Police, student housing staff, campus judicial officer, Dean of Students, coach, faculty advisor, student health physician, campus counselor, or Victim’s Advocate.

The University encourages persons reporting the support and assistance of friends or significant others when needed, in presenting their concerns.

Informal Inquiry

a. The President of the University will designate a Victim’s Advocate to speak confidentially with anyone seeking information or advice regarding sexual assault or rape.

b. The Victim’s Advocate -

(1) Will assist in clarifying definitions of sexual assault, stranger and acquaintance rape, and to explain the administrative mechanisms for dealing with complaints.

(2) Will provide assistance relative to immediate crisis intervention services, and informa tion and options for further assistance and reporting, including: rights of confidentiality, medical and emotional support, academic intervention, financial intervention, contact with law enforcement authori ties, criminal prosecutions, civil proceedings, the court system, and/or the University’s Conduct System; physical protection and relocation assistance; and support with/or the survivor’s, significant others or friends.

(3) Is attached to the University Police and assigned by the University Police Chief on an individual case basis. The function of the Advocate is informal and advisory, aimed solely at aiding the person seeking assistance, information or advice.

(4) Will not investigate nor adjudicate complaints of sexual assault or rape.

(5) Will, at the survivor’s request, provide assistance and support throughout the investigatory process should a complaint be filed.

c. The person initiating the inquiry may be accompanied by a friend and/or advisor when discussing alleged incidents.

d. Discussions at the informal inquiry level are completely confidential. No record will be made or retained concerning these discussions without the permission of the persons making the inquiry. Should the information provided during the informal inquiry identify a clear and immediate danger to the community, the Advocate will notify the University Police Chief immediately. A clear and present danger is defined as a threat as the result of a cluster or pattern of sexual assaults and/or a stranger or sadistic sexual assault, or a gang rape involving University students or staff either on campus or its surrounding environs.

Formal Reporting

a. As soon as convenient, the survivor should report incidents of sexual assault, including date or acquaintance rape and gang rape to the University Police.

b. The University Police will review the survivor’s complaint and upon probable cause, immediately initiate a criminal investigation into on-campus sexual assaults.

c. A Victim’s Advocate will be assigned to provide non-in vestigatory survivor’s assistance, and as soon as practicable will make the following notifications:

(1) Will assist in clarifying definitions of sexual assault, stranger and acquaintance rape, and to explain the administrative mechanisms for dealing with complaints.

(2) Incidents in which the accused is an employee of the University and the victim is a student, will be reported to the Vice President of Student Affairs, Dean of Students, the Director of Human Resources, and the Director of Counseling. The complaint will be investigated, the assistance of the University Police, and all information will be forwarded for a separate disciplinary action to the appropriate Vice President and/or the President.

(3) Incidents where the accused is an employee of the University and the victim is also an employee, it will be reported to the Director of Human Resources and the appropriate Vice President and/or the President.

(4) Incidents where the accused is not a member of the California State University Community and the assault did not occur on campus, the Victim’s Advocate will provide outside jurisdiction coordination assistance for the campus community survivor upon request.

d. In all cases of sexual assault where a formal complaint has been filed, it will be the responsibility of the Victim’s Advocate to keep the survivor informed of the status of any student or employee disciplinary proceedings in connection with the sexual assault, and the results of those actions or subsequent appeals. Additionally, the Victim’s Advocate will monitor criminal proceedings connected with the sexual assault, and provide the survivor with assistance related to court appearances and the criminal/civil justice process.

e. All those conducting administrative investigations related to sexual assaults, will maintain a full and complete written record of the investigation and subsequent disciplinary recommendations and proceedings.

Appendix D

Example Crime Statistics Request Letters to Campus Security Authorities

(Campus Security Authorities with Supervision)

MEMORANDUM

TO: All Campus Security Authorities

FROM: Steven Jaureguy, University Police Chief

DATE: July 1, 2008

SUBJECT: Crime Statistics for the year 2007

If you are aware of any crimes that occurred in the year 2007 against students, faculty, staff, or other University community members that were not reported to the University Police, please complete the attached forms and send them to me no later than July 1, 2008. I would be very helpful if you were to report the date and location of each incident. Standardized forms allow each police department to make a national compilation of crime statistics.

Thank you for your assistance in complying with this federal law.

For further information about Crime Statistics Request forms go to our website [website link]

(Campus Security Authorities with No Supervision)

MEMORANDUM

TO: Campus Security Authorities

FROM: Senior Director of Public Safety Services

DATE: July 1, 2008

SUBJECT: Crime Statistics for the year 2007

As a Campus Security Authority, you are required to report certain criminal offenses as outlined by federal law. According to federal law, specified in the Uniform Crime Reporting Program and the California State University’s Crime Statistics Act, you are required to report certain criminal offenses to the local police agency or any official of the institution who is defined as “Campus Security Authority.”

The definition of “Campus Security Authority,” according to the Federal law, is as follows:

"An official of an institution who has significant responsibility for student and campus activities, including but not limited to, student and campus housing, student transportation, student employment, student activities, student organizations, student safety, and scholarship recipients whose only responsibility is to provide care to students are unlikely to have significant responsibility for student and campus activities, except in a counseling center whose only responsibility is to provide care to students.

The President of the University will designate a Victim’s Advocate to keep the survivor informed of the status of any student or employee disciplinary proceedings in connection with the sexual assault, and the results of those actions or subsequent appeals. Additionally, the Victim’s Advocate will monitor criminal proceedings connected with the sexual assault, and provide the survivor with assistance related to court appearances and the criminal/civil justice process.

e. All those conducting administrative investigations related to sexual assaults, will maintain a full and complete written record of the investigation and subsequent disciplinary recommendations and proceedings.

Sexual Assault Policy and Procedures

Disciplinary Sanctions

In addition to possible criminal penalties through the county justice system, the following sanctions may be imposed on individual students or recognized student organizations found guilty of complicity in sexual assaults. The severity and number of sanctions applied will be determined by the nature and degree of the individual act. Sanction recommendations will be made to the President by the Student Affairs Senior Director of Administration and Judicial Affairs or designee. The President will then inform the student in writing of the sanctions imposed. Possible sanctions include:

a. Expulsion from the University
b. Suspension for a specific time period
c. Probation for a specific time period
d. Psychological counseling or assessment
e. Performance of community service
f. Revocation of residence license
g. Informing the organization’s national or regional offices of the activity
h. Disbanding of the local chapter by the national organization
i. Prohibiting participation in campus activities, events and programs
j. Requiring relevant community service and/or participation in sexual assault awareness programs by all group members
k. Loss of all University privileges, including equipment use, room permits, advertising space and on-going campus fund-raising

Sanctions up to and including dismissal from employment may be imposed on University faculty and staff members found guilty of sexual assault, following the utilization of established California State University procedures, and guidelines set forth in appropriate collective bargaining agreements.

The accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during a campus disciplinary proceeding. Both the accuser and the accused must be informed of any University disciplinary proceeding brought alleging a sexual offense. The outcome of a disciplinary proceeding means only the University’s final determination with respect to the alleged sex offense and any sanction that is imposed against the accused.

The statistics described in paragraph (1)(F) shall be compiled in accordance with the definitions used in the uniform crime reporting system of the Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the modifications in such definitions as implemented pursuant to the Hate Crime Statistics Act. Such statistics shall not identify victims of crimes or persons accused of crimes.

Each institution of higher education participating in any program under this subpart shall develop and distribute as part of the report described in paragraph (B) of this subsection. Notices are typically posted within 24 hours of crime occurrence. There are several call stations located throughout the Stockton campus.

On occasion, you will see timely warning notices describing recent crime trends or dangerous incidents that represent an immediate threat to others. Notices are posted around campus to provide our community with information about the incidents and crime prevention recommendations. Notices are typically posted within 24 hours of certain verified trends or incidents.

Crime Reporting

Immediate emergency response and access to voluntary confidential reporting may be obtained 24 hours a day. Call the Securitas Security from an Emergency Blue Light Call Station, or dial 9-1-1 from any phone on campus.

Workplace Violence Prevention

University Police personnel provide workshops regarding the awareness and prevention of violence in the workplace. Employees may contact University Police at 667-3114 for a schedule of times and locations (See page 6 for policy information).

Safety Transport At Night

Securitas Security personnel are available 7 days a week to escort students, faculty and staff between campus buildings and parking areas after dark. Contact Securitas Security at 993-3469 to request a safety transport. Courtesys phones are available in campus buildings.

Security and Crime Prevention Programs

Whistle Defense

Free keychain whistles, for use as alert devices, are distributed by the University Police throughout the year. Call 667-3114 for more information.

New Student Orientations

University Police personnel present personal safety tips and emergency contact information to new students on a regular basis. Students are informed of policies, voluntary confidential crime reporting procedures, and security services.

Emergency Blue Light Call Stations

A 24-hour, button activated, telephone system will put you in contact with Securitas Security for any emergency need. There are several call stations located throughout the Stockton campus.

New Employee Orientations

Every month University Police personnel present safety policies and procedures to new employees, in cooperation with the Human Resources department. Employees are informed of injury and illness prevention, workplace violence, safety programs, and voluntary confidential crime reporting procedures.
Crime Reporting Policy and Procedures

The City of Stockton Police Department and Stockton University are responsible for service, law enforcement and maintenance of order on the Stockton campus. The entire campus community is strongly encouraged to report any and all known or suspected incidents of criminal activity on the campus to the City of Stockton Police Department or Stockton University Security. Those individuals who are responsible for their own security and the security of others are encouraged to be open to public inspection within two business days of the initial report being made to the department or a campus security authority.

Appendix A

(I) Each eligible institution participating in any program under this sub chapter and part C of sub chapter I of chapter 34 of Title 42 shall on August 1, 1991, begin to collect the following information with respect to campus crime statistics and campus security policies of that institution, and beginning September 1, 1992, and each year thereafter, prepare, publish, and distribute, through proper public officials, to all current students and employees, and to any and all known or suspected incidents of criminal activity at off-campus residences, and on public property during the most recent calendar year, and during the 2 preceding calendar years.

Psychological Counseling Services and medical staff in the Health Center are available for abuse educational programs and member assistance. The University also maintains a current listing of available off-campus counseling services, parent education workshops, self-help groups, and alcoholism/drug treatment centers.

Counseling Services
The University Police work closely with the Psychological Counseling Services as a team in dealing with sensitive situations, and we refer persons to Psychological Counseling Services on a regular basis. The counselors do not disclose information to the University Police without the consent of the client, unless there is an immediate threat to safety. Any report of statistics to comply with this act is done by numbers and not names, so information is kept confidential.

Weapons Possession
The unapproved possession, use or sale of firearms, ammunition, fireworks, explosives, or any dangerous weapon is forbidden and subject to university discipline and criminal prosecution. Approval for possession is by exception, and granted only through the office of the Chief of University Police.

Workplace Violence
California State University, Stanislaus is committed to creating and maintaining a working, learning, and social environment for faculty, staff, and students, which is free from violence.

Civility, understanding, and mutual respect towards all persons are intrinsic to the existence of a safe and healthy workplace. Threats or acts of violence not only impact the individuals concerns, but also the mission of CSU, Stanislaus to foster higher education through open dialogue and the free exchange of ideas. California State University, Stanislaus prohibits violent acts or threats of violence, and any member of the campus community who commits a violent act or threatens to commit a violent act is subject to disciplinary action and/or civil or criminal prosecution as appropriate.

California State University, Stanislaus has zero tolerance for violence against any member of the workforce, other persons in the workplace, or property.

For the purpose of this policy, violence and threats of violence include, but are not limited to:
1. Any act that is physically assaulting; or
2. Any threat, behavior or action which is interpreted by a reasonable person to carry the potential:
   - To harm or endanger the safety of others;
   - To result in an act of aggression; or
   - To destroy or damage property.

Established personnel and public safety protocols will serve as the mechanism for resolving situations of violence or threats of violence. Each allegation of violence or threat of violence will be taken seriously. Individuals are encouraged to report violence, acts of violence, threats of violence, or any other behavior which by intent, act or outcome harms another person or property, to their supervisor, the office of Human Resources, or University Police.
Crime Reporting Policy and Procedures

Crime Reporting Policy

The City of Stockton Police Department and Securitas Security are responsible for service, law enforcement and maintenance of order on the Stockton campus. The entire campus community is strongly encouraged to report any known or suspected incidents of criminal activity on campus to the City of Stockton Police Department or Security as soon as possible. Voluntary confidential reporting of crime incidents on-campus may be made to other non-police campus security authorities, who are officials of the institution and have significant responsibility for student and campus activities (including, but not limited to: student housing, student discipline, campus judicial proceedings, athletic officials, deans, or faculty advisors) (see pages 7 & 8 for statistics & appendix E).

To Report a Crime

1. Give your name, telephone number, and location.
2. Give clear and accurate information.
3. Be prepared to supply suspect and vehicle description and direction of travel.
4. DONT HANG UP! Follow the instructions of the dispatcher.

Sexual Assault Policy and Procedures

In addition to possible criminal penalties through the county justice system, the following sanctions may be imposed on individual students or recognized student organizations found guilty of complicity in sexual assaults. The severity and number of sanctions applied will be determined by the nature and degree of the individual act. Sanction recommendations will be made to the President by the Student Affairs Senior Director of Administration and Judicial Affairs or designee. The President will then inform the student in writing of the sanctions imposed. Possible sanctions include:

a. Expulsion from the University
b. Suspension for a specific time period
c. Probation for a specific time period
d. Psychological counseling or assessment
e. Performance of community service
f. Revocation of residence license
g. Informing the organization’s national or regional offices of the activity
h. Disbanding of the local chapter by the national organization
i. Prohibiting participation in campus activities, events, and programs
j. Requiring relevant community service and/or participation in sexual assault awareness programs by all group members
k. Loss of all University privileges, including equipment use, room permits, advertising space and on-going campus fund-raising

Sanctions up to and including dismissal from employment may be imposed on University faculty and staff members found guilty of sexual assault, following the utilization of established California State University procedures, and guidelines set forth in appropriate collective bargaining agreements.

The accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during a campus disciplinary proceeding. Both the accuser and the accused must be informed of any University disciplinary proceeding brought alleging a sexual offense. The outcome of a disciplinary proceeding means only the University’s final determination with respect to the alleged sex offense and any sanction that is imposed against the accused.
Sexual Assault Policy and Procedures

Complaint Procedures

Individuals in the campus community are strongly encouraged to report any incident of sexual assault to any Campus Security Authority such as, but not limited to, University Police, student housing staff, campus judicial officer, Dean of Students, coach, faculty advisor, student health physician, campus counselor, or Victim’s Advocate.

The University encourages persons reporting to seek the support and assistance of friends or significant others when needed, in presenting their concerns.

Informal Inquiry

a. The President of the University will designate a Victim’s Advocate to speak confidentially with anyone person seeking information or advice regarding sexual assault or rape.

b. The Victim’s Advocate -

(1) Will assist in clarifying definitions of sexual assault, stranger and acquaintance rape, and to explain the administrative mechanisms for dealing with complaints.

(2) Will provide assistance and information relative to immediate crisis intervention services, and information and options for further assistance and report ing, including: rights of confidentiality, medical and emotional support, academic intervention, financial intervention, contract with law enforcement authorities, criminal prosecutions, civil prosecutions, the court system, and/or the University’s Conduct System, physical protection and relocation assistance, and support with for the survivor’s significant others or friends.

(3) Is attached to the University Police and assigned by the University Police Chief on an individual case basis. The function of the Advocate is formal and advisory, aimed solely at aiding the person seeking assistance, information, or advice.

(4) Will not investigate nor adjudicate complaints of sexual assault or rape.

(5) Will, at the survivor’s request, provide assistance and support throughout the investigatory process should a complaint be filed.

c. The person initiating the inquiry may be accompanied by a friend and/or advisor when discussing allegations.

d. Discussions in the informal inquiry level are completely confidential. No record will be made or retained concerning these discussions without the permission of the persons making the inquiry. Should the information provided during the informal inquiry identify a clear and immediate danger to the community, the Advocate will notify the University Police Chief immediately. A clear and present danger is defined as a threat as the result of a cluster or pattern of sexual assaults and/or a stranger or sadistic sexual assault, or a gang rape involving University students or staff either on campus or its surrounding environs.

Formal Reporting

a. As soon as convenient, the survivor should report incidents of sexual assault, including date or acquaintance rape and gang rape to the University Police.

b. The University Police will review the survivor’s complaint and upon probable cause, immediately initiate a criminal investigation into on-campus sexual assaults.

c. A Victim’s Advocate will be assigned to provide non-investigatory survivor’s assistance, and as practical will make the following notifications:

(1) Will assist in clarifying definitions of sexual assault, stranger and acquaintance rape, and to explain the administrative mechanisms for dealing with complaints.

(2) Incidents in which the accused is an employee of the University and the victim is a student, will be reported to the Vice President of Student Affairs, Dean of Students, the Director of Human Resources, and the Director of Counseling. The complaint will be investigated, and the assistance of the University Police, and all information will be forwarded for a separate disciplinary action to the appropriate Vice President and/or the President.

(3) In incidents where the accused is an employee of the University and the victim is also an employee, it will be reported to the Director of Human Resources and the appropriate Vice President and/or the President.

(4) In instances where the accused is not a member of the California State University Community and the assault did not occur on campus, the Victim’s Advocate will provide outside jurisdictional coordination assistance for the campus community survivor upon request.

d. In all cases of sexual assault where a formal complaint has been filed, it will be the responsibility of the Victim’s Advocate to keep the survivor informed of the status of any student or employee disciplinary proceedings in connection with the sexual assault, and the results of those actions or subsequent appeals. Additionally, the Victim’s Advocate will monitor criminal proceedings connected with the sexual assault, and provide the survivor with assistance related to court appearances and the criminal/civil justice process.

e. All those conducting administrative investigations related to sexual assaults, will maintain a full and complete written record of the investigation and subsequent disciplinary recommendations and proceedings.

Sex Offender Registration Policy

"Sex offenders who are enrolled as students or employed by, or who carry on a vocation or volunteer at a university, college, community college, or other institution of higher learning, must register with the campus police department". (Penal Code 280.01)

A registered sex offender within the state of California is required to notify and register with the University Police Department within five (5) business days from the beginning of classes when enrollment as a student; or within five business days from the date of hire for employment with the University.

When a registrant with the University Police Department as required, and takes classes in continuous sessions broken only by standard winter, summer, and holiday breaks, they do not have to re-register each year. If they skip at least one semester, they must re-register with University Police.

A registrant is required to notify the campus police within five (5) business days when their student status is discontinued. However, if they are returning as a student after a normal winter/summer break, they do not have to notify the campus police.

If a registrant is employed or enrolls in class(es) solely at the California State University, Stanislaus Stockton campus, including all on-line classes even if they never meet in person, they are only required to register in that jurisdiction with the City of Stockton Police Department.

If a registrant is employed or enrolls for any class(es) at the California State University, Stanislaus Turlock campus, including all on-line classes even if they never meet in person, they are required to register with the campus University Police Department.

As provided by law, the California State University, Stanislaus Police Department does not maintain Sexual Offender Registration Information in the ARMS master database, and it is not required to assign a new file number upon registration with our jurisdiction.
