College Corps in the news

California Is Leveraging the Pandemic Into Its Own Peace Corps
Sweetening federal stimulus and AmeriCorps funds with state and local money, the state is cracking out tens of thousands of Youth Service jobs.

Some California Students to Receive $10K for Tuition After Completing 450 Volunteer Hours

California will pay college students $10K for completing volunteer work

State to give $10,000 to low-income college students for community service work

Con horas de servicio público, estudiantes de California pueden optar a $10,000 para educación
College Corps Goals

• Create a generation of civic-minded leaders with the ability to bridge divides and solve problems.

• Help low-income students graduate college on time and with less debt.

• Address societal challenges and help build more equitable communities across California.

Regional Hub Objectives

- Coordinate partnerships with community host partners in the region
- Bring Fellows together at the regional level to connect and collaborate
- Promote peer learning and exchange across partner campus leads

Stanislaus State is in a collaboration with UC Merced and in a Regional Hub with Central Valley North institutions including UC Davis, Sacramento State, UOP, and Woodland Community College. We will also be working with schools in the Bay - CSU East Bay, Monterey Bay, and San Francisco State.
The program will address three focus areas in our community:

1. K-12 Education
2. Food Insecurity
3. Climate Action

“Our fates and our futures are interconnected” - Governor Gavin Newsom
