

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION QUICK REFERENCE GLOSSARY

TERM	DEFINITION	RESOURCES
Advisors	Stan State Faculty and Staff that help students make decisions regarding their classes and academic goals.	Advising Hub
Asynchronous Online Class	Class instruction materials, such as recorded lectures, tests, and assignments, can be accessed at any time via the web. Students may be given a timeframe during which they need to submit
Catalog Year	In reference to an academic year that determines graduation requirements. Students' catalog year is assigned based on their admission term (e.g. a fall 2020 new student's catalog year is 2020-21).	Full Catalog Year description
Census Date	The twentieth day of instruction for Fall and Spring semesters--this is the last date that any registration requests can be made	Academic Calendar
Co-Requisite	Two or more specific classes that must be taken during the same semester.
Course Number	A 5-digit reference number used to identify specific sections of a class.
Drop	In reference to "dropping a class": disenrolling from a class section and stopping participation. This can be done from your student portal during established time periods.	Registration dates and deadlines for each semester are posted on the Class Schedule
Enrollment	Registration into one or more class sections.
FERPA	The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a	View information on Student
General Education (GE)	A series of courses required for a Bachelor's degree. Not all students will take the same GE courses.	General Education Information
Grading Options	Students may be graded on a Credit/No Credit (CR/NC) basis or for a letter grade. Students may elect to change their grading	Information on Grading Procedures
Hold	A restricted status placed on a student's account that may prohibit the student from certain actions such as registration into classes, receiving transcripts, etc.
Hybrid Class	Class instruction includes both in-person and online components, with pre-scheduled in-person meetings. The online component can be either asynchronous or synchronous.
Late Add	Registration into a class after the first week of the semester.	Registration dates and deadlines for each semester are posted on

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION QUICK REFERENCE GLOSSARY

Matriculation	A word for when a student is enrolled or registered at a university.
Permission Number	A unique number given to students to enable registration into a closed or restricted class through the Student Center.	Instructions for Adding a Class using a Permission Number
Pre-Requisite	A class that must be completed before registering for a different class (i.e. the pre-requisite class fulfills a requirement for registration in another class).
Synchronous Online Class	Class instruction is delivered on pre-scheduled days and times, as listed in the Schedule of Classes , via the web or remote broadcast. No in-person meetings scheduled.
Term	A specific academic year and semester (e.g. Fall 2008 or Summer 2019).
To Do List	A list of items requiring action located in your Student Center	Instructions for viewing your To Do List
Waitlist	A roster, or list, of students interested in registering for a class section that has already met maximum capacity.
Warrior ID	A unique 9-digit number used to identify a student; The ID number starts with leading zeroes and is printed on your Warrior
Warrior Username	The beginning of your university email address, up to the @ sign (e.g. the warrior username for jdoe1@csustan.edu is "jdoe1").	