

Research Communication Workshop Series and Certificate

Offered by the Student Engagement in Research,
Scholarship, and Creative Activity Program (SERSCA)

Participate in three different events in Spring 2019 to receive the SERSCA Research Communication Certificate!

33rd Annual Student Research Competition!

Friday, March 8, 2019

Share your research in a 10-minute presentation. Top presenters in each category earn monetary awards ($$), and nominees compete at the statewide CSU Research Competition. Apply with a 5-page summary by 12 noon on Monday, Feb. 18.

Powerpoint Presentations

Powerpoint can be a useful tool, but there are many ways a presentation can fall flat. Learn some simple techniques for making effective and beautiful slide presentations.

- Friday, 2/22, 1:00-2:15, MSR 130
- Thurs., 4/11, 12:30-1:45, MSR 130

Data Visualization

Effective visualization with graphics and plots makes complex data more accessible, understandable, and usable. Learn principles and practice hands-on examples (bring a laptop!) from two experts from UC Merced.

- Friday, 4/12, 12:30-2:00, MSR 130

Voice, Speech, and Presence

Expert advice and practical skills for presenting your research with poise, confidence, and clarity. A hands-on workshop with guest instructor Cynthia DeCure (Theater Department).

- Fri., 3/1, 1:00-2:15, MSR 130
- Thurs., 4/11, 12:30-1:45, MSR 130

Designing Research Posters

Posters are a very common way to share your research at professional conferences. We'll cover essential principles for designing your next poster and giving a great presentation.

- Thurs., 5/2, 11:00-12:15, MSR 130
- Fri., 5/3, 12:30-1:45, MSR 130