POSITION

California State University Stanislaus
One University Circle
Turlock, CA 95382

POSITION: The Anthropology Program invites applications for a Lecturer position in Cultural Anthropology for the academic year 2016–17. We seek a broadly trained teacher-scholar with a regional focus who can engage students in the relevance of this discipline for our diverse campus and region. The desired regional focus is open except for the Americas and Southeast Asia. Available courses in Fall 2016 are likely to include Introduction to Cultural Anthropology, Anthropology and Global Issues (2 sections) and Family in Cross-Cultural Perspective. In Spring 2017, we anticipate available courses in the candidate's regional focus, serving general education and the major. We have a strong interest in hiring a teacher-scholar who focuses on Africa, South Asia, or the Middle East, as well as someone with a research interest in the field of ethnomedical anthropology.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Ph.D. in Anthropology is preferred; however, an ABD in Anthropology with evidence of effective university-level teaching experience will be considered.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: A candidate's application will be enhanced by evidence of effective undergraduate teaching in Anthropology. The Program has a strong investment in experiential learning and values instruction with an applied focus. Applications are strongly encouraged from qualified candidates with successful experience teaching first generation college students and non-traditional students.

HOW TO APPLY & DEADLINE: A complete application must include: an application letter addressing the position description and qualifications; unofficial photocopies of graduate transcripts; a CV including contact information for three references; and evidence of teaching effectiveness. Official transcripts will be required at the time of hire. Screening of completed application files will begin on February 15, 2016. The position will remain open until filled. The appointment will begin on August 24, 2016.

Send applications and all correspondence concerning this announcement to:

COMPENSATION: Commensurate with qualifications and experience. As a member of the 23-campus CSU System, we offer an extremely competitive benefits package.

CAMPUS & AREA: California State University Stanislaus serves the San Joaquin Valley and is a critical educational resource for a six county region of approximately 1.5 million people. Widely recognized for its quality academic programs, the University has 10 nationally accredited programs and approximately 400 full-time faculty. Over eighty percent of full time faculty holds doctorates or terminal degrees in their fields. The University offers 41 undergraduate majors, 24 master's programs, 7 post-graduate credentials, and a doctorate in education serving 8,900 students. New instructional facilities have been built for the unique pedagogy of professional programs, laboratory sciences, and performing arts.

CSU Stanislaus continues to receive national recognition with its ranking as one of the best 373 colleges in the nation by The Princeton Review. The University was one of 12 public universities in the nation to be recognized by the American Association of State Colleges and Universities for demonstrating exceptional performance in retention and graduation rates. In addition, U.S. News and World Report ranks CSU Stanislaus as one of "The Top Public Universities-Master's" institutions in the West in its America's Best Colleges ratings. CSU Stanislaus also is recognized as a Hispanic-Serving Institution (HSI) by the U.S. Department of Education.

CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CLEARANCE NOTICE

The university requires a criminal background check to be completed for all of its new employees, current employees seeking promotional or transfer opportunities, and current employees assigned new duties. Necessary background investigations will be conducted, as required, depending upon the job requirements of position. These could include, but are not limited to, employment verification, education verification, reference checks, and criminal records checks via processing of fingerprints through the Department of Justice and FBI, as well as, license verification upon employment. Additionally, all applicants or employees whose responsibilities include regular or direct contact with minor children are subject to the child abuse background check. Failure to consent to any background check will disqualify an applicant from further consideration. Additionally, an applicant who fails to provide the necessary information or who provides false or misleading information may also be disqualified from further consideration. Later discovery of false or misleading information related to the background check may result in the offer of employment being withdrawn or subject the employee to disciplinary action, up to and including termination. Full disclosure of all misdemeanors and felonies should be made in connection with this application.
