POSITION: USER ENGAGEMENT AND OUTREACH LIBRARIAN: The University Library seeks a dynamic, service-oriented, culturally sensitive, and knowledgeable librarian to join the library faculty as a User Engagement and Outreach Librarian. This is a tenure-track, twelve-month position. Library faculty report to the Dean of Library Services.

Faculty librarians serve as liaisons to academic departments for collection development and library outreach, and participate in library and University faculty governance. To be recommended for tenure and promotion, library faculty must demonstrate proficiency in the areas of librarianship; research, scholarship and/or creative activities; and participation in University affairs.

The User Engagement and Outreach Librarian will provide leadership for the development of strategies, partnerships and initiatives to enhance student knowledge of library research and discovery skills in order to increase student success. Additionally, the incumbent will conduct outreach to campus and student services units and build partnerships, becoming part of the active campus network of services promoting student success.

Essential duties include:

- Planning, implementation, and evaluation of a diverse range of outreach initiatives, programming, and instructional support services for an identified campus audience. Initiatives may include partnerships with other campus and student services units such as the Student Success Center, the Advising Resource Center, and advisors throughout the campus colleges.
- Offering workshops and other group or one-on-one consultations to students to foster a strong perception that successful library research and information discovery is well within reach for any student applying information literacy strategies promoted by librarians.
- Working in collaboration with other librarians and other campus academic and student services units on various aspects of user services.
- Engaging with students in various venues, such as Associated Students Inc. (ASI) activities, student clubs, dorm events, and appropriate venues that are student-centered or involve student awareness and services.
- Participating in the face-to-face instruction program by accepting teaching assignments, designing lessons, teaching sessions, and recording class data.
- Applying instructional design principles to create online learning objects in support of student information literacy and critical thinking skills.
- Participating in the provision of reference services to students, faculty, staff, and members of the community.
- Participating in library and University activities, committees, and professional organizations.
- Utilizing social media platforms in the library to conduct outreach.
- Participating in assessment to ensure quality and improve the effectiveness of library services.
- Working on special projects and performing other duties as assigned.
MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: ALA-accredited or equivalent graduate degree if earned outside the U.S. or Canada; at least one year of experience providing reference, instruction or outreach services to a diverse student population; strong interpersonal and communication skills; knowledge of social media platforms and ability to use them effectively; demonstrated ability to build long-lasting partnerships between organizations including campus academic and student service units.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Second master’s degree; at least one year of experience in an academic library offering reference, instruction or outreach services to a diverse student population; experience and familiarity with strategies promoting information literacy to a diverse student body; experience building curriculum; ability to work in a collaborative environment.

HOW TO APPLY & DEADLINE: The position is available for spring 2017; the start date is negotiable. Screening of completed application files will begin on January 24, 2017. A complete application must include an application letter, specifically addressing the position description and each qualification, and a professional resume or vita, including the names, titles, addresses, telephone numbers, and e-mail addresses of three professional references. Official transcripts will be required at the time of hire.
