

Faculty Employment Opportunity

POSITION: The Department of Mathematics invites applications for a full-time tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant Professor, effective August 2018. The individual hired will be required to teach mathematics courses across the baccalaureate spectrum, conduct scholarly activity, and provide service to the Department and the University. This position is contingent on the availability of authorized funding.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Ph.D. in Mathematics Education with a Master's degree in Mathematics; or Ph.D. in Mathematics, Applied Mathematics, or Statistics; or equivalent.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: A candidate's consideration will be enhanced by providing evidence of teaching experience, as candidates must have a strong commitment to teaching. Preference will be given to those individuals with experience or training in Mathematics Education, or who have a strong interest in Mathematics Education.

HOW TO APPLY & DEADLINE: A complete application must include: an application letter, specifically addressing the position description and qualifications; unofficial photocopies of graduate transcripts; a professional resume, including the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three references; a statement of teaching philosophy and a statement of research interests; and three letters of recommendation, at least one of which must address the candidate's teaching abilities.

The complete application must be sent in electronic form (PDF) to:

CAMPUS & AREA: California State University Stanislaus serves the San Joaquin Valley and is a critical educational resource for a six county region of approximately 1.5 million people. Widely recognized for its quality academic programs, the University has 10 nationally accredited programs and approximately 400 full-time faculty. Over eighty percent of full time faculty holds doctorates or terminal degrees in their fields. The University offers 41 undergraduate majors, 24 master's programs, 7 post-graduate credentials, and a doctorate in education serving 8,900 students. New instructional facilities have been built for the unique pedagogy of professional programs, laboratory sciences, and performing arts.

CSU Stanislaus continues to receive national recognition with its ranking as one of the best 373 colleges in the nation by The Princeton Review. The University was one of 12 public universities in the nation to be recognized by the American Association of State Colleges and Universities for demonstrating exceptional performance in retention and graduation rates. In addition, U.S. News and World Report ranks CSU Stanislaus as one of "The Top Public Universities-Master's" institutions in the West in its America's Best Colleges ratings. CSU Stanislaus also is recognized as a Hispanic-Serving Institution (HSI) by the U.S. Department of Education.

CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CLEARANCE NOTICE

The university requires a criminal and/or child abuse background check to be completed for many of its new employees, current employees seeking promotional or transfer opportunities, and current employees assigned new duties. Satisfactory completion of a background check (including a criminal records check) is required for employment. CSU will make a conditional offer of employment, which may be rescinded if the background check reveals disqualifying information, and/or it is discovered that the candidate knowingly withheld or falsified information. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the continued employment of a current CSU employee who was conditionally offered the position. Failure to consent to any background check will disqualify an applicant from further consideration. Additionally, an applicant who fails to provide the necessary information or who provides false or misleading information may also be disqualified from further consideration. Later discovery of false or misleading information related to the background check may result in the offer of employment being withdrawn or subject the employee to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
