

Faculty Employment Opportunity

- POSITION: Lecturer in Gender Studies. The Gender Studies program invites applications for a pool of part-time teaching appointments. Candidates selected will teach one or some combination of face-to-face and/or online courses in Gender Studies. A majority of these courses contribute to the university's General Education program. These courses could include, but are not necessarily limited to:
Women's and Feminist Activism
Women's Development and Lifestyle Choices
Society and Gender
Society and Sexuality
Women's Spirituality
Gender and Education
LGBT Issues in Education
Gender, Environment and Sustainability
Studies in Activism: Sex, Gender and Sexuality
- MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: A Master's degree in Gender Studies, Women's Studies, Sexuality Studies, or in a discipline appropriate to the General Education area the course serves (Social Sciences, Humanities) with coursework, scholarship and/or teaching experience in Women's, Gender, or Sexuality Studies is required. Community college or university-level teaching experience is required (experience as a teaching assistant is acceptable).
- PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Candidates with a degree or concentration in Gender Studies, Women's Studies or Sexuality Studies are preferred. While a Master's degree is the minimum requirement, ABD status or a PhD in an appropriate discipline (see above) is preferred. Prior experience teaching in online or hybrid formats, and/or training or certification as an online instructor is highly preferred for consideration to teach any online courses. Online Gender Studies courses must comply with Quality Online Learning and Teaching (QOLT) standards or the equivalent (i.e. Quality Matters).
- HOW TO APPLY & DEADLINE: A complete application includes (1) a cover letter specifically addressing the candidate's qualifications for the position and preferences for courses to teach; (2) unofficial copies of graduate transcripts; (3) a professional CV; and (4) contact information for three references. Copies of teaching evaluations are desired. Official transcripts will be required at the time of hire. Screening of application files will commence immediately as vacancies occur and will remain open until positions are filled. Send applications (electronic submissions preferred) and all correspondence concerning this position to:

CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CLEARANCE NOTICE

The university requires a criminal and/or child abuse background check to be completed for many of its new employees, current employees seeking promotional or transfer opportunities, and current employees assigned new duties. Satisfactory completion of a background check (including a criminal records check) is required for employment. CSU will make a conditional offer of employment, which may be rescinded if the background check reveals disqualifying information, and/or it is discovered that the candidate knowingly withheld or falsified information. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the continued employment of a current CSU employee who was conditionally offered the position. Failure to consent to any background check will disqualify an applicant from further consideration. Additionally, an applicant who fails to provide the necessary information or who provides false or misleading information may also be disqualified from further consideration. Later discovery of false or misleading information related to the background check may result in the offer of employment being withdrawn or subject the employee to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
