8. You may apply for as many scholarships as you wish as long as you have checked and confirmed that you meet the eligibility requirements for each scholarship you choose to apply for.

- To find more scholarship opportunities, you may select “Ours” under the Opportunities drop down menu and review all of the on-campus scholarship opportunities that are available. However, remember that if these scholarships were not shown to you as recommended scholarships you may not be eligible for them because you do not meet one or all of the required criteria. If you choose to continue to apply and we confirm that you are not eligible, your application will be ineligible for review by the scholarship review committee.

The screenshot shows the 'Recommended Opportunities' section of the application system. A dropdown menu is open, highlighting the 'Ours' option. Below the menu, a table lists several scholarship opportunities with their respective award amounts and application deadlines.

11. If after you submit your General Application, you do not receive a list of recommended scholarships you may need to go back and double check the information that you submitted. If the information is correct and you still do not have a list of recommended scholarships or your list is very limited it may mean that you do not meet the criteria for the scholarships we offer and you may need to try again next year.
