Attention Future Teachers! Apply for the Larry Acterman Public Education Award

Larry Acterman was a social studies teacher in the Long Beach Unified School District for 33 years. Mr. Acterman was a dedicated teacher and mentor, and a strong believer in the public school system. He was an influential leader at the local, regional and national levels, always fighting for improvements at individual schools, within the district, and throughout the state. We now invite you to carry on his legacy and consider a career as a public school teacher in California. A single award of $1,000 up to $2,500 is available.

To be eligible for this scholarship, applicants must:

✓ Be a high school senior and U.S. citizen graduating from the Long Beach Unified School District
✓ Plan to enroll in full-time study in pursuit of a California teaching credential at an accredited four-year public college or university in California
✓ Demonstrate a strong commitment and interest in pursuing a career as a K-12 public school teacher in California
✓ Demonstrate outstanding scholastic ability and determination.

Applications must be submitted by April 1, 2015.
