

2016-2017 Proof of Dependent Support

You have indicated on your 2016-2017 FAFSA application that you have a legal dependent or child that you provide or will provide more than half (50%) of their support from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017. Please provide financial information and a signed statement showing that you provide or will provide at least half (50%) support for this legal dependent(s) or child. You must provide sufficient documentation to prove support for the legal dependent(s) or child.

NOTE: If you are unable to meet the minimum support requirements set forth by Federal regulations and you are under the age of 24, you will be required to add parental information on your 2016-2017 FAFSA application.

Explanation:

✓ PROVIDE FINANCIAL INFORMATION

To demonstrate how you are financially supporting yourself and more than half (50%) of the legal dependent(s) or child you must provide a copy of your 2015 Tax Return Transcript showing you claimed the dependent(s) or child. You must submit proof that you will provide more than half (50%) of their support from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017.

Additional financial support documentation can include:

- Proof of wages (most recent paycheck stub)
- Proof of child support received.
- Proof of receipt of SNAP, TANF, WIC, and/or other federally subsidized programs.
- Any other money received from a parent or other person whose financial information is not reported on the FAFSA or is not part of a legal child support agreement.

✓ SUBMIT SIGNED STATEMENT

A signed statement explaining how you provide more than half of the support, even if they do not live with you, and how you will continue to provide more than half of the support for the legal dependent(s) or child.
