

Judy DeVine

Judy DeVine is the Assistant Director of Communications and Change Management at the Chancellor's Office. She leads communications efforts for a CSU-wide technology initiative called CHRS and works with campuses to use change management methodologies to facilitate technology adoption. Previously, Judy worked with the University of California, Irvine as a Marketing Manager, and Whittier Law School as Director of Communications and Marketing. She has worked as a consultant with 14 additional colleges and universities including USC, CalTech and Scripps College to create marketing strategies and tools. She also spent ten years as the Associate Creative Director for a large advertising agency, creating advertising for national clients.
