  - C. Program Review: French (BA) Five-Year Academic Program Review (2001/2002). The UEPC received the final report for the French (BA) Five-Year Program Review (2001/2002) from the Academic Program Review (APR) Subcommittee. The College of Arts, Letters, and Sciences Core Planning Committee has recommended program discontinuance of the entire French program (the major, the minor, and the concentration). The APR

Subcommittee's final report states that the members "do not support discontinuance of the French program until a greater variety of languages is available for study by CSU Stanislaus students." At the 3/11/04 UEPC meeting, L. Johnson, chair of the APR Subcommittee, agreed that the APR Subcommittee would support discontinuance of the French program but only if a greater variety of languages are available for study by CSU Stanislaus students. Following discussion, it was moved by M. Jaasma, seconded by R. Floyd, and passed with one abstention that the UEPC recommend to the Provost that the program discontinuance review be initiated for the French program, understanding that Foreign Languages programs are recognized by the CSU Board of Trustees as a basic core undergraduate program "wherein need and demand should not be the preeminent criteria for offering undergraduate programs. In evaluating these undergraduate programs, qualitative criteria regarding program integrity should be paramount." (Policy for the Discontinuance of Academic Programs 1/7/88, Appendix)
