Most Spirited Organization				Innovative Social Justice Response Award				Carol Burke Memorial Award				Greatest Achievement Award
This award goes to the student organization that has exhibited the most spirit for their organization. This organization has demonstrated "Warrior Pride" and striven to enhance the campus community.				This award recognizes a student or organization with an innovative educational, developmental, and/or social action response to an issue of social justice on campus, and/or in the community at a local and global level.				In honor of Carol Burke, University Student Union Director at Stanislaus State in the 1990s, who was known for her dedication to students, insight into how to lead students, and support of student growth and development.				The Greatest Achievement Award is given to the student or organization that has made the greatest single achievement for the University or their individual organization in the past year.

Most Improved Organization				Social Justice Advocacy Award				Miriam V. and John L. Keymer Memorial Award				Outstanding Student Leader
Awarded to the student organization that has had the greatest improvement over the past year. The successful organization for this award will have displayed significant effort for the improvement of the organization and therefore exhibited considerable progress in the development of the group.				This award is presented to a student or organization who has demonstrated a strong dedication to social change at Stanislaus State and the local community through various platforms, projects, or initiatives. They have worked to advance the university and community culture by advocating for social justice and exemplifying a commitment to service and the promotion of justice for the marginalized.				In honor of Miriam V. and John L. Keymer, this memorial award is to pay tribute to an "Unsung" Student Leader who does not occupy a prominent student leader office.				The Outstanding Student Leader of the Year Award is the highest honor awarded at Stan State recognizing individual leadership. Award criteria includes service to the campus, active involvement in co-curricular activities, the ability to set and achieve goals, and demonstration of high personal values such as integrity and courage.
