Advisor Center

This guide outlines functions available to faculty to view many aspects of a student's academic record.

1. From the home page, select My Schedule from the Faculty Center

2. Select the Advisor Center tab

Please Note: Advisees are not currently being assigned to specific faculty

3. Select the View Data For Other Students button

My Advisees

There is no information for the transaction you requested.
4. Search for a student by entering their Student ID or Last Name, First Name

5. Click the Search button

6. From the Search Results, click on the student

If the displayed list of students is very long, you can use the arrows to display the next page and you can always click on the column title to sort. For example, if you wish to sort by First Name, you can click on the First Name column.

- The Advisee Student Center is exactly what the student sees when they login to their student account.
• The Advisee General Information tab will show all the demographic information for the student.

• Use the drill down arrows or the links at the top of the page to view information.

• You can also Collapse All or Expand All sections by using the corresponding button.
The transfer credit tab shows the students transfer information from other schools.
The academics tab shows the students’ academic career and program.

Also available is each term the student has attended and their grades for that term.

Select the different terms to view the student’s grades for that term.
1. From the Student Center page, select Transcript: View Unofficial from the other academic drop down menu.

2. Click on the double arrow icon.

3. Under Report Type, select Working Copy from the drop down menu.

4. Click the go button.
